ABOUT OUR WINERY

Grinder's Switch Winery began as a hobby out of control, when owner Joey Chessor and his wife Gail, became entranced by wine. By 2006, the couple was putting the finishing touches on turning their family home into a full-blown winery with the tasting room housed in their hand-built log cabin.

Since then, this family winery has been welcoming guests from far and wide to their relaxing little house in the woods to enjoy some of Tennessee's best wines. Now, thanks to a recent expansion, Grinder's Switch is available for small to medium sized gatherings, meetings and events.
